JUDGMENT

Heard.

2. The case of the petitioner is that the subject matter of Exts.P2 and P3 notices is pending consideration before competent civil courts. If that be so, it is for the petitioners to answer Exts.P2 and P3 notices stating such reasons requesting the offices that have issued the said notices to desist from taking any further action. If such objections are filed, the competent among the respondents will take appropriate action in accordance with law untrammelled by anything stated in this judgment.

The writ petition is disposed of in the above terms.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN,
JUDGE.
